I - CURTIS KOLPACK will the Senior Class Presidency to the next foolish student who accepts it.

We - CHARLIE MOON and LESTER RICKERT will our unused school books to anyone who will use them as little as we did.

I - JUDY REINERT will my dog leash to any girl who has a boy to tame.

I - TONY REEDY will all my foolheartiness to Dale Bratz in hopes that he'll keep it under control better than I did.

I - LUON HIGH will my ability to have a French accent to Erica Tomtshik so she'll be able to master three languages.

I - JEANNE HAMM will my cute figure to anyone who wants to look nice.

I - PETE THIEX will my now healed injured knee to the next Homecoming King in hopes that he won't have to attend the dance on crutches.

I - RICK HANCE will my attentiveness of Social Problems to anyone who will listen attentively.

We - ELROY MATZ, EDWARD COLBY, VERNON JOLITZ, LLOYD UTTECHT, and JOHN BUHR will the fun we've had at Tilleda to next year's Senior Class.

We the Senior Class of 1969 will all of our good times and fond memories of good ole B.H.S. to the graduating class of 1970.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

This date reminded me of graduation, ten years ago, and I decided to go on a journey to visit all my old B. H. S. classmates. When I got back home, I recorded all of the news.

My first stop was at the Shepley Bar, and to my astonishment the proprietors were GEORGE ASEN-BRENER and MIKE BEILKE. They had won their establishment by chugging the most beers in a week in Shawano County. To my surprise who should drop in but PAT THIEK in her go-go outfit ready to perform the old dances of the late 60's.

I then went to Madison only to find BOB BREI and DARLENE BRATZ as professors. They were at the University trying to convert that city's hippies. Little did they know that CURT KOLPACK, KEN TREPTOW, and VERNON JOLITZ were the head leaders of the hippie underground movement. From there I was given information leading to the whereabouts of Mr. and Mrs. David Beilke (former SANDRA PRANKE) who owned and operated Wick's Construction Company. Working as construction engineers were JOHN BUHR, LESTER RICKERT, and CHARLES MOON.

I took a jet-super flight to New York where I luckily stumbled upon EURETTA JACOBS who was recently selected as Stockbridge Indian Princess of the U. S. I later dined at the famous Waldorf-Astoria and who was still waiting on tables but JOHN REINKE and BARB MOENKE. I needed groceries before I continued my journey, so I stopped at the famous Red Owl Store of New York and found EDWARD KOLBY as manager with ELROY MATZ and LLOYD UTTECHT as his assistant managers.

Next, I booked a flight to Florida. I found the pilot to be RON FANDLER and my hostess MARILYNN THIEK, who were planning on getting married the following month. From Florida airport I hailed a taxi driver, TONY REEDY. It seems he had just received a divorce from the famous movie star, ROSIE SHEGONEE. Taxi-driving was now his only means of support. I made my registration at the glamorous Flamingo Hotel only to discover that RODNEY ZEINERT and REID WATTERS were the co-owners.

After a good night's rest I traveled to New Orleans and read in the local paper about the recent raid by the State Police of the gambling casino owned and operated by TOM MALEUG and FAITH HERMANN. They had been known to get into it with the State Police, even in high school.

I then journeyed to Indianapolis to watch the famous 500 race. After twenty-five hours of devilish driving, the winner of the Indianapolis 500 was "Devil may care BRUNNER." His effort was made possible through the support of the multi-millionaire farmer, PETER THIEK.

I then rented a car from Reinert's Rent a Car, JUDY REINERT, President, and started my trek homeward. On the way back I stopped and picked up four hitch-hikers who I recognized to be JEANNIE HAMM, KAREN ERICKSON, KERRY CARLEY, and LUON HIGH coming back from their unfathomable jobs as Hollywood actresses. I stopped at a toll bridge and LOIS HOHN collected the fee.

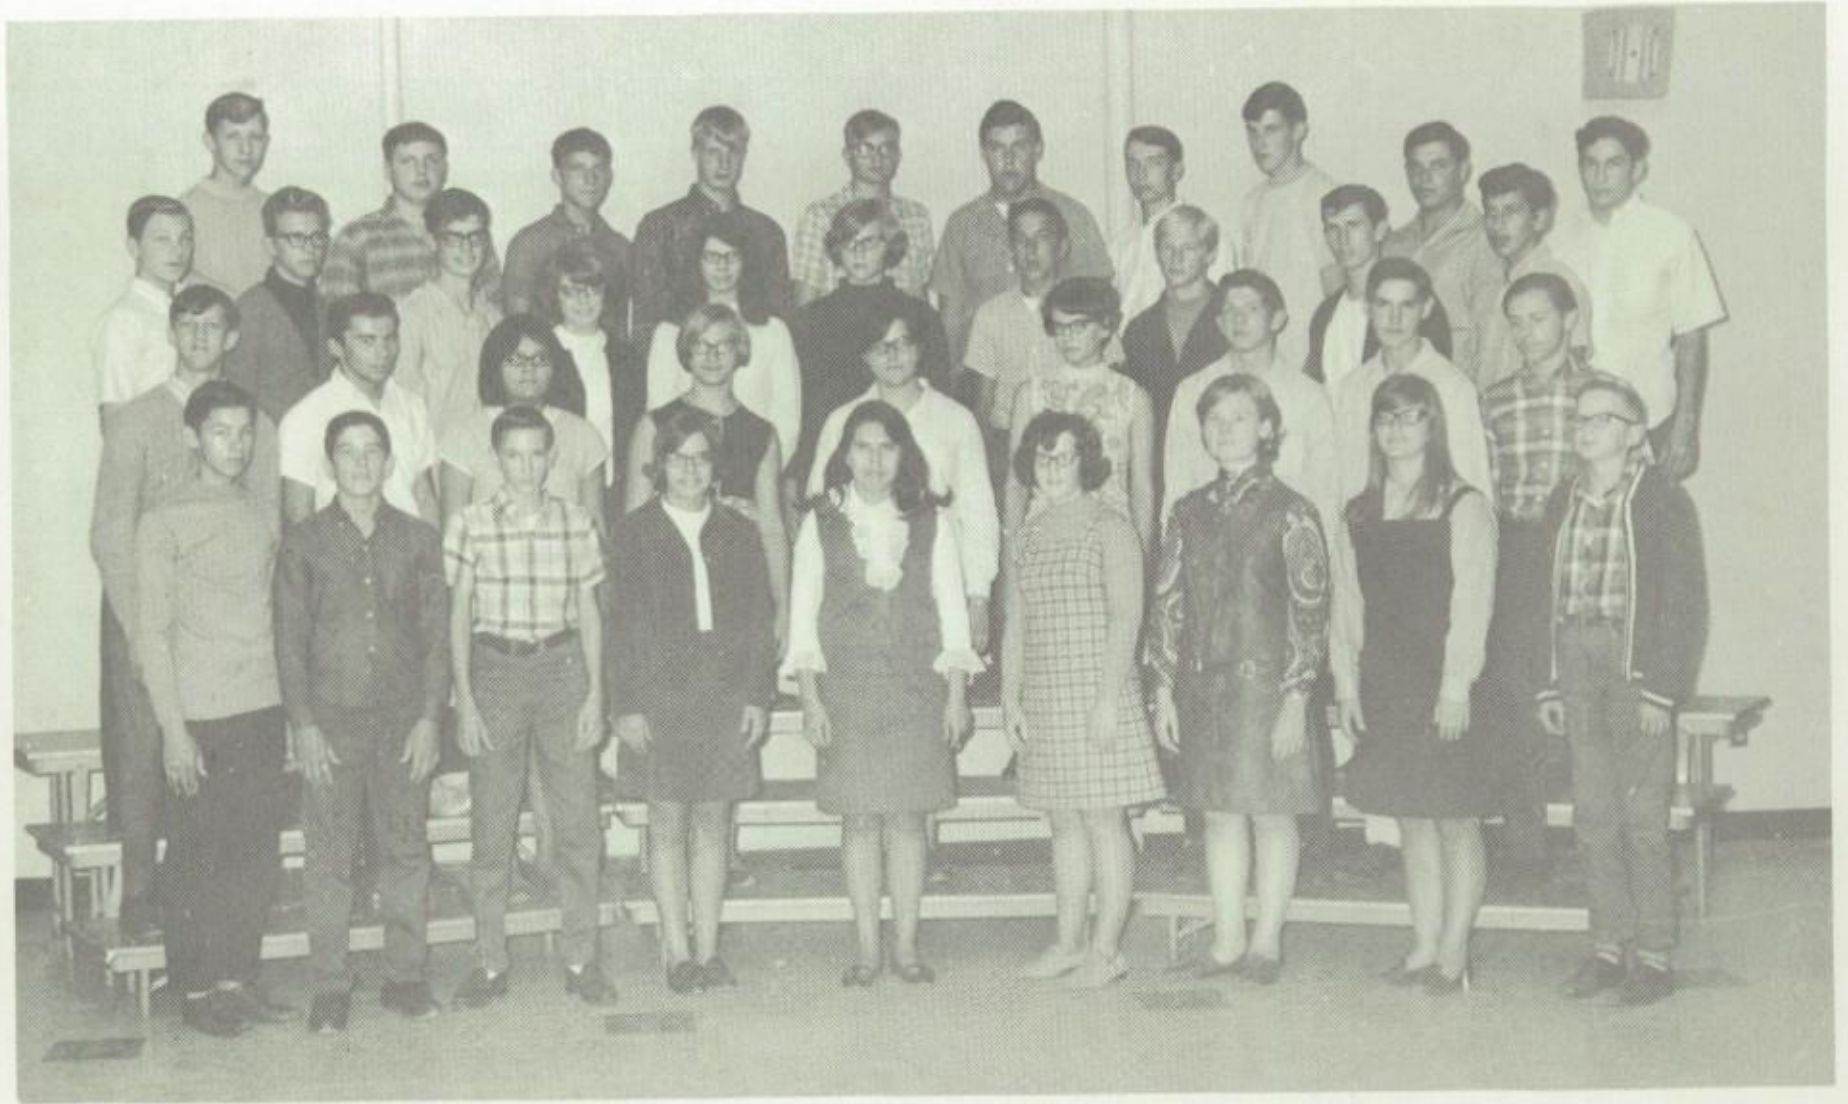

My return to Bowler High seemed quite interesting since I found LINDA TRINKO still looking for a cat at school. It seems she lost one during Senior Class Play practice one night.

Our old buddy, SUSIE BENTS, is now living in Bowler and is head Nun at the church. Her father decided that this would be her best occupation because she had her share of fun in high school.

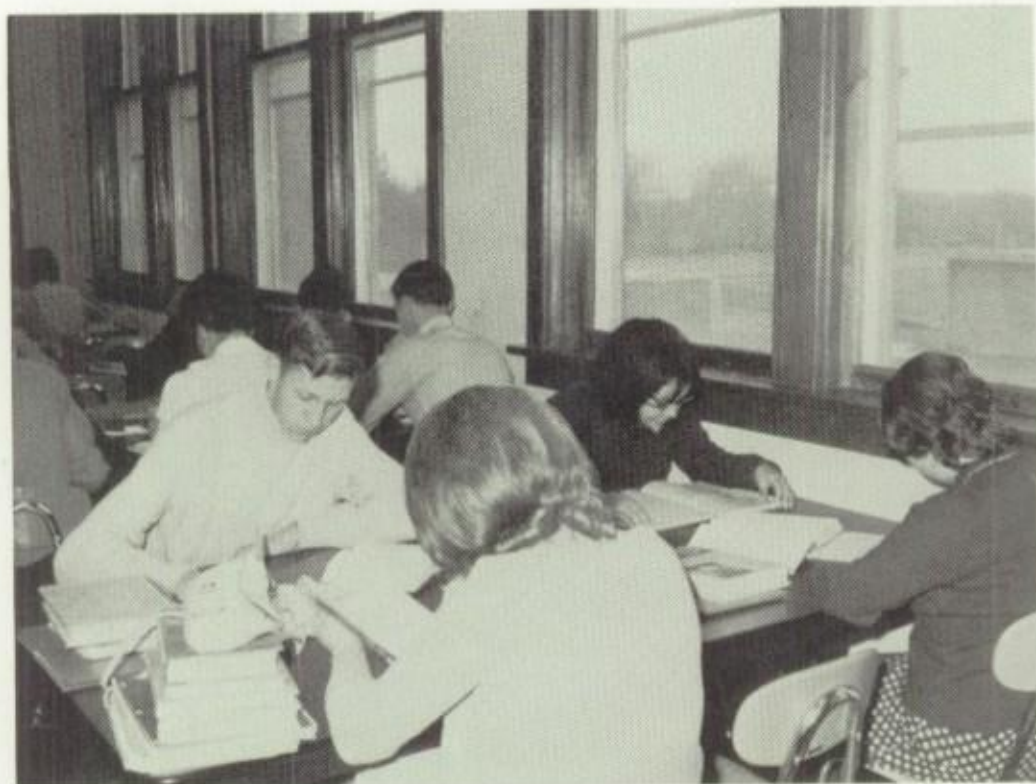

KATHY KINGDON has been named Cheese Maid of the Year by her husband, Duane Buelow.

Signed,
Mystery Student

The year 1968 marked the first year of conference football action for BHS. We opened the season with a 26-0 victory over Almond. The team made our first homecoming a success with a thrilling 12-7 victory over Iola-Scandinavia. Our team finished with a highly successful 4-2 record and third place in the Central C Conference. Much credit should be given to our head coach, Mr. Skalecki and his assistant, Mr. Coduti for their hard work with the team.

All-Conference

BASEBALL

This Spring holds a great deal of promise for the Bowler High baseball team. Eight out of nine starters are returning and one other emblem winner will round out the starting team. Many other experienced boys will be back also. Mr. Skalecki will be our new baseball coach and if the team works hard for him, we should get a conference championship. Returning Lettermen include Rodney Zeinert, Peter Thiex, Robert Brei, John Reinke, Raymond Murphy, David Bernarde, Otto Maves, Leon Casetta, and Jim Kucksdorf.

CROSS COUNTRY

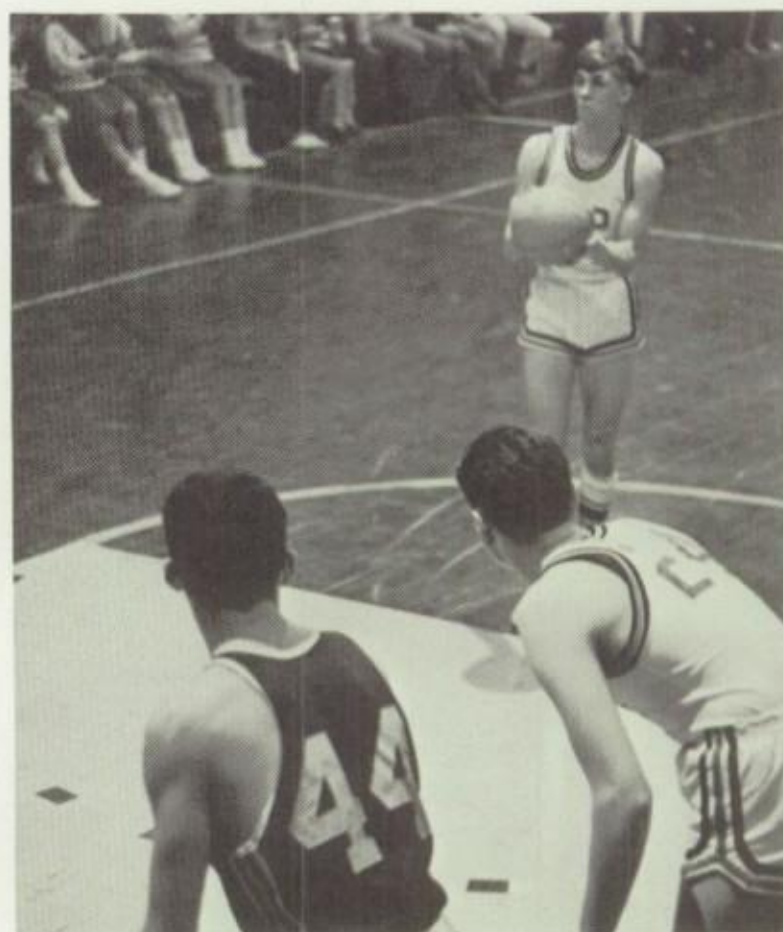

Bowler High's second year in Cross Country proved to be a successful one. Mr. Kolpack worked hard with the team and through much effort and sacrifice they achieved a eight-win, two-loss record. Their victories were over White Lake, Birnamwood, Rosholt, (twice), and over Tigerton and the Stevens Point Freshmen once each. The only losses they received were against Gresham. Mr. Kolpack and the team deserve much credit for their work.

TOP ROW: (l-r) D. Bernarde; N. Cornelius; O. Maves; V. Schultz. BOTTOM ROW: R. Fandler; R. Fuhrman; G. Bernarde; D. Felts.

ACTIVITIES

JUNIOR PROM

*"Some
Enchanted Evening"*

King Curt Queen Linda

Junior King, Brian Kling, with the

Our class worked steadily for two weeks in preparation for our Junior Class Prom.

The theme for our prom, "Some Enchanted Evening", was depicted by six pastel colors, stone walls, flower beds, and a fountain in the middle of the floor.

We danced to the music of Jimmy Stieber and his orchestra. We had a very fine turnout and the evening was enjoyed by all.

Our chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Budd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trinko, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kolpack.

Court Of Honor

L. to R. Junior - Sue Bents and Bob Brei, Freshman - Beverly Strassburg and Keith Kolpack, Senior - Landa Teuchart and Dale Strassburg, King and Queen - Linda Trinko and Curtis Kolpack.

Crowning

Halloween Carnival

The queen, Alvina Gutt, was crowned by Rodney Zeinert, president of Letterman's Club.

The fun-filled Carnival of Bowler was held on Friday, November 1, 1968.

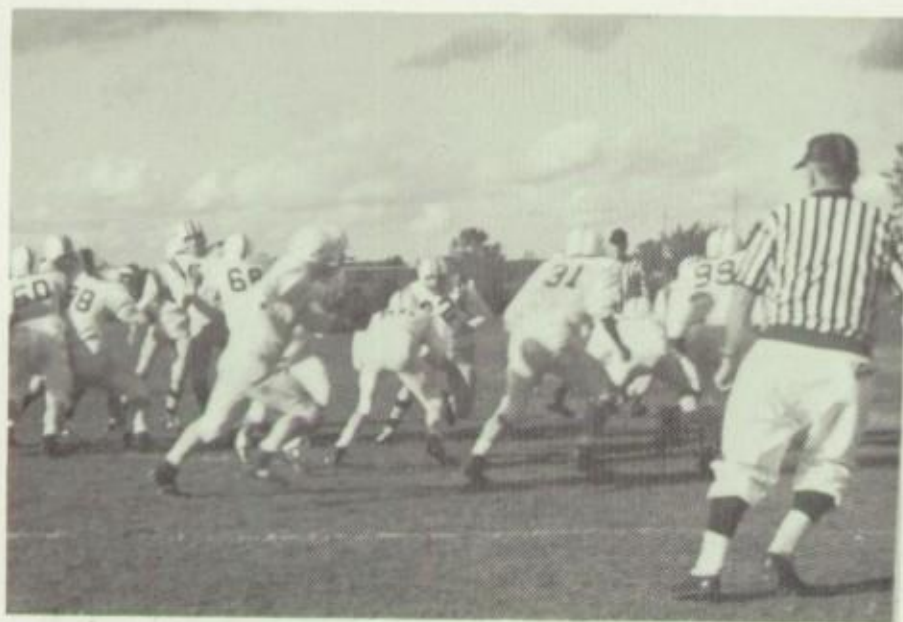

The candidates for the Carnival Queen were Susan Bents, Senior Class; Alvina Gutt, Junior Class; Rhonda Schultz, Sophomore Class; and Marian Pranke, Freshmen Class.

Mr. Coduti.

HOMECOMING — 1968

Bowler victorious over Iola.

King Pete Crowns Queen Darlene

This year for the first time Bowler High had a Homecoming, which turned out to be a great success. The very good turnout for this event showed the true school spirit the students of Bowler possess.

The first event of the evening was a great flaming bonfire. Materials for the bonfire were furnished by the students of B. H. S.

The second high light of the evening was a snake dance through the main street of Bowler. The band led the students as they marched hand in hand forming a snake-like dance.

When everyone returned to school, they met in the gym and had a pep rally. Our coaches, Mr. Skalecki and Mr. Coduti, gave us pep talks for the next day's game.

The evening was enjoyed by all. Let's hope good ole B. H. S. keeps up this event in years to come.

BOHISCAN STAFF

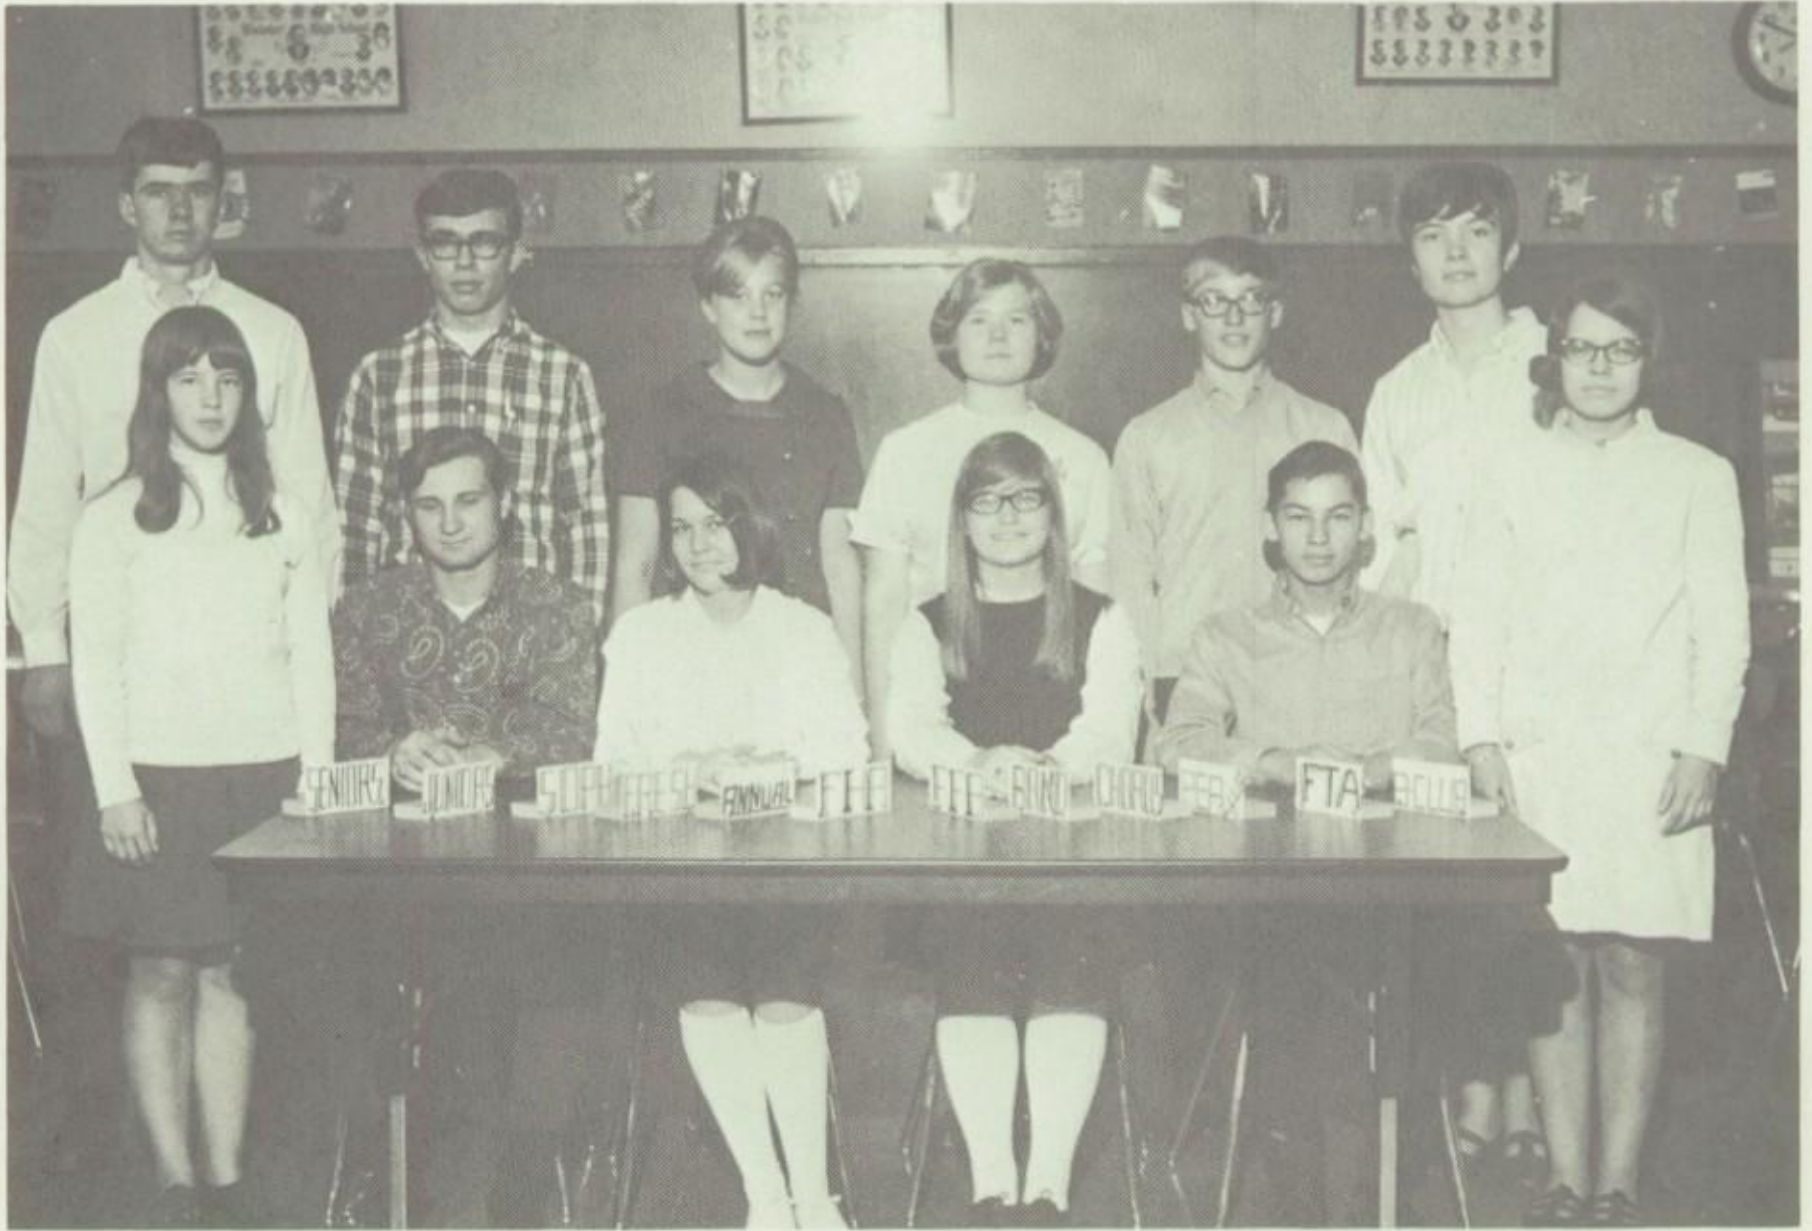

In the 1968-69 school year many exciting and interesting events have taken place. The Bohiscan Staff has tried to capture a memory of these events. With pictures and write-ups we hope to give an accurate accounting of the high points of the year.

The Bohiscan staff wishes to thank Miss Jones and Miss Kopp for their assistance in the development of this annual. They have devoted many long hours and much hard work as our co-advisors in order to make this an annual for all.
